

SWAROVSKI CRYSTAL PALACE

Light Sock 2007

Diller, Scofidio + Renfro

A smart and chic sub-version of the chandelier's classical branch and pendant form, Light Sock is comprised of a mesh bag filled with Swarovski crystals. A single light source buried within intensifies the crystal's natural light prisms. 4.5M (15') of socket cable and 3.6M (12') of white rope included with all models.
